

ARCHIVE WEBPAGE CELEBRATES FIRST ANNIVERSARY

On March 8, 2017, the Washington County Archives webpage was launched. In the year since, it has had much activity. Here are some statistics to back this up:

- There have been 22,537 total views
- by 4,126 individuals
- living in 18 different countries.

Those 18 countries are Australia, Brazil, Canada, China, Colombia, Ecuador, France, Hong Kong, India, Ireland, Israel, Japan, Luxembourg, Mexico, Philippines, South Korea, United Kingdom, and the United States.

The site has also expanded considerably. Many new pages were added. You can search detailed guides to county records held by the archives; find out about lodging, restaurants, and interesting places to visit in the area; view images both historic and modern related to Washington County, Johnson City, and Jonesborough; and much more. The site is continually updated, so please come back to visit often.

The webpage is accessed at the following url: <https://wctnarchives.org/>.