

MILDRED SPAULDING KOZSUCH COLLECTION

Accession Number 11
undated
1.25 linear feet (2 boxes)
67 color photographic slides
1 slide projector

Provenance: The collection was donated by Mildred Kozsuch's son Sandhi Kozsuch, of Dunwoody, Georgia, on April 12, 2019.

Access Note: The collection is available for research use.

Biographical Note: Mildred Spaulding Kozsuch was an important local historian and genealogist in Washington County for many years. During that time, she served as County Historian, chair of the Public Records Commission, and as a founder and officer in several organizations, including the Watauga Association of Genealogists, Washington County Historical Association, and the Jonesborough Genealogical Society. She was the recipient of the East Tennessee Historical Society's Ramsey Award for Lifetime Achievement and of the WCHA's Samuel Cole Williams Award. She was an early leader in the effort to establish the Washington County Archives. The department's public reading room is named in her honor. She passed away on June 8, 2017 at the age of 88.

Scope and Content Note: The collection consists of 67 color photographic slides taken and compiled by Mildred Kozsuch of various historic houses, structures, and places in Washington County, Tennessee. Images are arranged in alphabetical order by the name of the building or location. The slides are housed in four storage sheets in one folder. A slide projector is also included with the collection. The slides are undated but were probably taken in the 1980s.

Important subjects include:

Dwellings—Washington County (Tenn.)
Historic buildings—Tennessee—Washington County
Washington County (Tenn.)—History
Washington County (Tenn.)—Buildings, structures, etc.
