

MISCELLANEOUS MAPS COLLECTION

1974-2000 and undated
19 maps

Location: The collection is housed in the vault in map cabinet drawer # 6, one map tube and two map boxes.

Provenance

The maps in this collection were purchased by the Friends of the Washington County Archives for the archives in September 2017 and November 2017. Two maps were donated by Cheryl Wexler in 2019 from the collection of Ruth and Dorothy Wexler. Two maps were donated by Martha Whaley in 2019. One set of maps, "Maps of Tennessee and Other Southern States for Genealogical Searching," compiled by Pollyanna Creekmore was donated by Glenn Stroup, July 2021.

Scope and Content Note

These modern produced maps depict various aspects and periods of Washington County and Tennessee history, including the state of Franklin era, early county boundaries, early Tennessee roadways, boundaries of frontier settlements, and the secession vote for each Tennessee county in 1861. Maps are arranged in alphabetical order by the title of the map.
